A portion of the records that are responsive to your request have been uploaded for your review. Staff is in the process of determining if other potentially responsive records exist. Assuming they do exist, those responsive records will be uploaded to the system, and you will be notified as they become available. The City anticipates an update on August 21, 2026.

Public Records Request – R000063-020526

If you have any questions, or wish to discuss this further, please contact me.